

Room #9

Anvil

Dreaming up a nightmare and another sleepless night
Restless sedation with no end in sight
Fists clenched in anger, shivering in fear
Your blood begins to boil, dementia is near

Room number nine
Number nine

You're a rat in a maze and you're trying to find your way
You're climbing the wall and trying to get away
Running a race and going nowhere
Electroshock therapy, take all you can bear

Only a dream
It's only a dream
(It's not what it seems)
It's not what it seems
It's only a dream
(Only a dream)

Only a dream
It's only a dream
(It's not what it seems)
It's not what it seems
It's only a dream
(It's only a dream)

Rubber room walls keep me from the pain
Need a shot of lithium to make it right again
Dream another nightmare, another sleepless night
Subconscious psychosis, wake up or die of fright
