

World of Tomorrow

Anvil

We are all searching fo the utopian dream
The competition of the game and the team
Subjective perfection, hard to achieve

The eternal answer lies in what you believe
What you believe
In what you believe

World of tomorrow
World of tomorrow

The separate gods that we think are above
We want a world filled with peace and love
Peace and love
With peace and love

Tolerance will teach us to be strong and be brave
History tells you what lives we must save
Promised a heaven that my not exist
Follow the leader that you should resist
You should resist
You should resist

World of tomorrow
World of tomorrow

World of tomorrow
World of tomorrow
