Destroy Everything

Anya Marina

Rhapsodize the melody Pulverize the memory

Don't nobody make a move We're sending in the wrecking crew Destroy everything

Don't need a boyfriend I don't even think about your girlfriend I don't really wanna fight

Don't want your kickbacks I don't want your letters Or your knick-knacks Taking up the corner room upstairs

Obliterate the evidence It only keeps you on the fence

Whatever doesn't make it good Probably gonna make you worse Destroy everything

Don't need the breakdown Every conversation's like a shakedown You can take your bad advice Don't want your kick-backs I don't want your complicated set-backs You can take your soulless shoes and all of you

'cause you can't calculate cool
Yet that's all you ever seem to do
You can't calculate, can't calculate, can't calculate cool

Rhapsodize the harmony Pulverizin' you and me

Your mind is like an unmade bed You don't know the half of it Destroy Destroy

Doot doot do do doot
