

How Far Does the Dark Go?

Anya Marina

Darkness leaves me breathless
Who blacked out the sun
Shadows make me reckless
Am I the only one?

Playing games in the black of the night
Stumbling, close my eyes
Standing here, on the edge, petrified
All alone I'll decide

How far does the dark go?
Give me an omen, show me a sign
How far does the dark go?
Give me an answer, show me the light
How far does the dark go?
How far does the dark go?
How far does the dark go?

There better be some meaning
'Cause I'm running for my life
Hiding from a feeling
That you're the reason why

Playing games in the black of the night
Stumbling, close my eyes
Standing here, on the edge, petrified
All alone I'll decide

How far does the dark go?
Give me an omen, show me a sign
How far does the dark go?
Give me an answer, show me the light
How far does the dark go?
How far does the dark go?
How far does the dark go?

If the coast is clear, why can't I see
If the stakes are low, then why's it seem I'm losing everything
Stare down the fear, like a loaded gun
When the bottom drops, why's it seem I can't see anything

How far does the dark go?
Give me an omen, show me a sign
How far does the dark go?
Give me an answer, show me the light
