

Just Calling

Anya Marina

I'm just calling, I'm just calling
To tell you I don't want to talk

The time that we met before the summer came was a crying shame
Put the 'what' in whatever

I know what you're mama said
I know your daddy left

I'm just calling, I'm just calling
To tell you I don't want to...

I'm just calling, I'm just calling
To tell you I don't want to talk

I'm just writing to tell you not to write me again
I never promised I'd make sense in this
I'm just calling, I'm just calling
I'm just calling to tell you that I'm never gonna love again

Don't want to meet at your place, don't want to see your face
I don't need my stuff, I've had enough now
I don't want to get back, don't want to rehash the past
Don't want to go over all the business again

I'm just calling, I'm just calling
To tell you that I'm never gonna love again
I'm just calling to tell you not to call me again
I gotta get on the same train as everyone in the west
