

My Mama Said It

Anya Marina

wake up, face the day, nobody ever belongs sometimes takes time just to leave it alone stand out, try to be, I never get it too wrong hard times, thinking what you're fixin to do my mama said it was all gonna work out in the wash, don't you f ret or mope

so just laugh when you're already lost, move, move along the ro ad
if it's all gonna work out in the wash, then I'm cleaning up th is mess,
I think I'm starting with you!
I think I'm starting with you!

playing on the safe side, maybe you're his main side, ain't no telling how to know so honey don't go rocking the boat you don't see the downside with kicking on the south side that way no one ever sees the secrets you been trying to keep so tired of hiding out, but who do you want to be?

ret or mope
if it's all gonna work out in the wash, then I'm cleaning up th
is mess,
I think I'm starting with you!

so if your trepidation outweighs your fight and if the consequences weigh down your mind, I let the feeling change me from inside hold on tight

my mama said it was all gonna work out in the wash, don't you f
ret or mope
if it's all gonna work out in the wash, then I'm cleaning up th
is mess,
I think I'm starting with you!
I think I'm starting with you!
I think I'm starting with you!

my mama said it was alright, it was alright.
my mama said it was alright, it was alright.

I think I'm starting with you!
