

Nothing

Anya Marina

I've been on the take, I've been scheming and lying to myself
I've been on the make with a feeling that's meant for no one else

Close my eyes and fantasize until I'm feeling high
Fantasize until I'm feeling blind

I've been showing up like I love you for everything you are Don't wanna interrupt this fever that's growing in heart
Close my eyes and fantasize until I'm feeling high
Fantasize until I'm feeling blind

Nothing in my head but you
Nothing else I wanna do
No one in my arms, it's true
Nothing in my head but you

Pennies in a well, I've been wasting away with every wish
Every fairy tale paints a picture that don't even exist
Close my eyes and fantasize until I'm feeling high
Fantasize until I'm feeling blind

Nothing in my head but you
Nothing else I wanna do
No one in my arms, it's true
Nothing in my head but you

Nothing in my head but you
Darling don't you feel it, too?
Nothing in my head but you
Darling don't you feel it too?

Even if the door won't open
Even if the shoe don't fit
Even if the mirror's broken
I'll still have

Nothing in my head but you
Nothing else I wanna do
No one in my arms, it's true
Nothing in my head but you

Nothing in my head but you
Darling don't you feel it, too?
Nothing in my head but you
Darling don't you feel it, too?
