

Snowflake

Anya Marina

so be a cold rain or be a fire escape, I'll never give your heart a break, never gonna make demands so be a snowflake or be a heavyweight, I'm gonna love you anyway, any which way I can

I want you here, I want you here so be a black box or be an aeroplane, never let you lose your way, even with the worst laid plans

so be a firefly or be a runaway, never lead your heard astray never gonna close my hands

I want you here, I want you here
I want you here, I want you here

I'll be the sonar and you'll be the sound can't run away cause I don't touch the ground, won't lose the sun cause we'll always be found – love surrounds so be a songbird or be a renegade, I'll always give your heart a stage, never gonna tune you out so be a long wait or be a steady date, gonna love you anyway, any which way I can

I want you here, I want you here
I want you here, I want you here
I want you here, I want you here
I want you here, I want you here
