

Tethered to the Dark

Anya Marina

I see an omen in the sky
A blood red moon shines on you and I
And the raven calls, "Hey do you believe?"
I do believe, I do believe, I do believe

We'll take an oath on bended knee
Side by side, one and all, we're thick as thieves
Cause nothing's gonna break this bond of blood
We will be one, we will be one, we will become

I will creep into your heart (ah ah ah)
You won't even feel it start (ah ah ah)
We'll be tethered to the dark (ah ah, ah ah, ah ah)

Down on the banks, the river's wild
Come feel the rush, the undertow of my desire
I bow my head to the setting sun
Thy will be done, thy will be done, thy will be done

I will creep into your heart (ah ah ah)
You won't even feel it start (ah ah ah)
We'll be tethered to the dark (ah ah, ah ah, ah ah)
