

The House Of Words

Aquaria

Looking back, into the past
A million years ago
A crowd in white, into the night
They never meant to go

Shining forces traveling fast
Away from the danger of this age
Now it's time to turn the page

Can't you see their sorrow, can't you see their pain?
Loneliness is just a part of all
Look into their eyes and you will find a fading light
Don't give up the things that you love!

Fight! Pride! Why do you escape from Pain? Hate? Why can't you trust your brothers?
They want the same thing as you.

Be strong! Where shall we live again? Think! This is the place that I was born to live with us all!

Three little beings
Playing in the yard
Building with dust of the stars.

Shaping the land
Carrying With love
Building a House made by words.

Here! There! We're as one
Again! Say!
Hear and sing new words:
"The lady deserves to rest now!"

Celebrate! The world is safe again! Cheers!
We shall invoke the gods!
Singing to live forever!

Three little beings
Playing in the yard
Building with dust of the stars.

Shaping the land
Carrying With love
Building a House made by words
