

Time Won't Wait

Aquaria

Time won't wait me, time won't die
Time won't wait 'till the day of mine
Time won't wait us, time won't die
Time won't wait our time to arise

Between the murmurs of a new life
She cries foretelling a bad day
The sounds of sea defies the whole crowd
They scream some words that we can't say

I hear some whispering about a newborn
Who will beat the rules of time
I fear the seals are broken
So reunite the pieces and arise!

Time won't wait me, time won't die
Time won't wait 'till the day of mine
Time won't wait us, time won't die
Time won't wait our time to arise

Time has come or time is going to die! Rise! Rise!
Time has come or time is going to die! Rise! Rise!

"all the land, as far as the sun can touch, is your kingdom...
Go! Travel in time right now!"

Time has come or time is going to die! Rise! Rise!

"Go my child through the eras of time
And tell them that we shall be united"

I hear some whispering about a newborn
He will beat the rules of time
I fear the seals are broken
Reunite the pieces and arise!

Time won't wait me, time won't die
Time won't wait 'till the day of mine
Time won't wait us, time won't die
Time won't wait our time to arise

"Our time is running out, our time won't wait the call
We cannot fight against our time. Our time won't wait!
Our hero was reborn, our child won't gonna fall
So he will fix again our time. Our time won't wait!"

Time has come or time is going to die!
Time has come or time is going to die!
