

Good Girl

Aquilo

I breathe irresponsibly
Inhale into my bloodstream
This space I can't seem to fill
Hole up, begging but I'm still lost in
The margin there's a line
Can't turn the pages
I've tried, hopeless
If you only see
I'm here to focus on the light
A side you care?
In the truth I don't compare
Could?
You're so around me, my beat subconsciously
But I don't feel like I'm still on my own

'Cause I've been looking for a good girl
I'm looking for a good girl
Tell me if you think I've found
Maybe there's a chance you'll let me know
'Cause I've been looking for a good girl
I'm looking for a good girl
Tell me if you think I've found
Can I get a sign before you go?

I broke the JD here tonight
But you send a message to my spine
One look, I can't turn away
And I'm hooked, tell me what you say
Lost in your movement and your lies
I just put you through my side
Hopeless if you never see
I'm here to focus on the light
A side you care?
In the truth I don't compare
'Cause
You're so around me, my beat subconsciously
But I don't feel like I'm still on my own
'Cause I've been looking for a good girl
I'm looking for a good girl
Tell me if you think I've found
Maybe there's a chance you'll let me know
'Cause I've been looking for a good girl
I'm looking for a good girl
Tell me if you think I've found
Can I get a sign before you go?
Make it obvious to me
Make it obvious to see
Make it obvious to me
Make it obvious to see

Tell me if you think I've found...
'Cause I've been looking for a good girl
I'm looking for a good girl
Tell me if you think I've found
Maybe there's a chance you'll let me know
'Cause I've been looking for a good girl
I'm looking for a good girl

Tell me if you think I've found
Can I get a sign before you go?
