

As the Pages Burn

Arch Enemy

As the pages burn
Secrets can't be unlearned...
Silence can't be unheard...
Knowledge is burden, power is onus
As the pages burn

Your memories fade.
Freed from the gap of reality.
Rejecting cognition
As the pages turn
Sinking in a pool ether
The past is washed clean

Rip apart the world
Word by word
Inch by inch
Sever your timeline
Silence your conscience

Sweet amnesia!
Here to free you!
As the pages burn
All your trials
Solved by fire
As the pages burn

As smoke fills the room,
Soon to pass.. heavy gloom
The wind will whisk away the past
A blank page stares at you
Nothing left, where to start?
A second chance carries expectation!
The books you'd written no longer exist
The future is in your pen
Ink to paper now begin

Rip apart the world
Word by word
Inch by inch
Sever your timeline
Silence your conscience

Sweet amnesia!
Here to free you!
As the pages burn
All your trials
Solved by fire
As the pages burn

Rewriting history
Starting now
Erase the misery
Let the flames
Eat your doubts...

Sweet amnesia!
Here to free you!

As the pages burn
All your trials
Solved by fire
As the pages burn
