Leader of the Rats

Arch Enemy

Crawling in the slime Dirt infested minds Always second best, leader of the rats Spreading their disease

Hiding behind trivial cynicism Venomous tongues spitting forth lies So quick to criticize the life of others Who are you to judge us

On a higher plain
Our art lives on forever
You are the scum beneath us
Fighting your pathetic battle

You hide behind trivial cynicism Venomous tongues spitting forth lies So quick to criticize the life of others Who are you to judge us

Laughing right into your face
As we watch your infantile behaviour
Love us or hate us - we don't care
We never aimed to please you
