

Yesterday Is Dead and Gone

Arch Enemy

The Fire inside us tonight
These Bridges will burn so bright
Tomorrow there's no Life
No more Power chains

Reaching for the life beyond
We will rise to the dark again
Ready to fight what we believe to be right
Yesterday is dead and gone

Breaking the chains
Shaking the cage
Hear our war cry
Let there be no doubt we walked out
This is reckoning day

We are standing in the flames
Reaching for the sky
Fighting to the end
Yesterday is dead and gone

Under a blood red sky
Our Voice will been heard in the world
When the compassion is lost
You try to control us This is so absurd
Freedom will be won at any cost

Breaking the chains
Shaking the cage
Hear our war cry
Let there be no doubt we walked out
This is reckoning day

We are standing in the flames
Reaching for the sky
Fighting to the end
Yesterday is dead and gone

Yesterday is dead and gone

Breaking the chains
Shaking the cage
Hear our war cry
Let there be no doubt we walked out
This is reckoning day
