

Only For One Day

Arch of Hell

How much I miss you
My blood in veins
How much I miss your arms
Your words of solace

I feel it's over
Everything what I want
Is just only our last one day
Get together my hearth discreetly
Ripped in two

It's seems to me so far so long
When my faithful hand was in yours
I love you my lord
What I want you to belong to me
So please stay beside me
Stay just only for one day

My body's aching and everything too
There is nothing for my fate
Only tears seems to be true

With my breath
With my touch
With smiles
That's my love
From my hearth
My mournful hearth
Give me only one day
I beg you
Look at me
What you see?
My broken mind can not cry
But you can't hear me

With my hope
Faith in you
Faith in love
Why can't you see?
This pain in my eyes

How much I miss your words of solace
I feel it's over
Everything what I want
My life is lost
Evermore
I failed
