Finally, from all I want to see, remove, from the place that I love, the place that I touch, that moves me, their eyes are on me, they're running for me, remove.

Moronic world, I can't hold on.

Silently, they take identity, remove, they take the colours fro m me and mould the others on me, remove, they take the hurt fro m me, they take the worth of me, remove.

Moronic world.

I can't hold on.

No, I can't hold on.
