

Driving At Night

Arco

out of your clothes
i know it won't be long god only knows
where this crazy thing comes from

it's not that i don't love you, i do i've read all the definitions think it must be true

it's like driving at night
when the illusion
i'm going somewhere
keeps me alive
driving at night
in this confusion
better to travel
never arrive

worried about
the future all the time but there's no room for doubt things'll work out fine

it's not that i don't want to, i do got to spend this life with someone might as well be you

it's like driving at night...
