

Pound

Arcwelder

(music arcwelder/words w. graber & s. macdonald)

Take down
And now take along
What you can't now
And sorens eyes
Good for value prize
Where's your head now
40 times
Maybe 50 times
Where's your heart now
Compromise
If you can find the time
Where's your pride now
When I walk out the door it'll be a sunny day
And the breeze floating by blowing worries away
From my mind
I feel fine
Come around all of the fear and the paranoia
Maybe half a pound all of the stress is unhealthy for ya
Where's the sky now all of the pain and the aggravation
All of the grind and the desperation
Cut it down til you feel proud if you want heat you should start a fire
Where's your thoughts now if you want hope you should fuel desire
If you want help you should try to find it
Hit it and quit forget the pride that you leave behind it
While we still can
And we'll end pound
Hit it and quit it
While we still can
And we'll end pound
