

As We Turn

Ari Hest

Will you greet me in the morning
Like no one else matters
Will you let me introduce you
To the light

Will you hold me as I hold you
Like clouds onto rain
Till I'm ready to release you
Again

I need to know you
I need to learn
How to hang on to each moment
As we turn

I need to grow you
Time, time it will burn
And its ashes tell our story
As we turn

I promise to be patient
To know there's always more to learn
And to hold you in forever
As we turn
