

Days Gone By

Ari Hest

One goal, one end
One life to transcend
One girl to hold high
Teach her to let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by

Setbacks, false starts
Triumphs, torn hearts
Long laughs and hard cries
Show her how to let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by

And one day you'll say
I'll make my own way
And I'll let you fly
Onward, let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by

One day you'll fly
From me, let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
Let lie the days gone by
