

New Is My Love

Ari Hest

Like a sunrise in the morning
Or tumbling winter waves
Like a rose in springtime
Opens up to the rays

New is my love
New is my love for you
New is my love
New is my love for you

I am the wind blowing whispers
The gentle raindrops on your head
Touching down to remind you
Of every vow that I said

New is my love
New is my love for you
New is my love
New is my love for you
New is my love
New is my love

Time has always been a friend
Though I couldn't tell til now
She begged and begged me to have faith
I'd find you somehow

If I ever make you unhappy
If you ever drive me insane
Remember we wouldn't have made it this far
Without a bond that could sustain

New is my love
New is my love today
New is my love
New is my love every day
New is my love
New is my love for you
