

No One Can Stay

Ari Hest

She knelt to the floor
Cradled her knees and shook
Down to her core
In disbelief
Soon up came the sun
Drawing the curtain
Night surrenders to day
And no one can stay

Laid out on the roof
Studying clouds drifting by
There was her proof
She understood
She far from this world
But getting closer
Be that as it may
No one can stay

Hold on let go
Looser tighter
My way your way
Doesn't matter

Be that as it may
No one can stay
Be that as it may
No one can stay
