

motive

Ariana Grande

Tell me why I get this feeling
That you really wanna turn me on
Tell me why I get this feeling
That you really wanna make me yours

'Cause I see you trying
Subliminally trying
To see if I'm gon' be the one that's in your arms
I admit, it's exciting
Parts of me kinda like it
But before I lead you on

Baby, tell me what's your motive
What's your motive
What's your motive
So tell me what's your motive
What's your motive
What's your motive

I could call bullshit out from a mile away (Don't say)
You want me if you can keep coming back for me
Might have to curve you if you just can't talk straight (Just say)
Say what you mean 'cause you might get it

'Cause I see you trying
Subliminally trying
To see if I'm gon' be the one that's in your arms
I admit, it's exciting
Parts of me kinda like it
But before I lead you on

Tell me what's your motive
What's your motive
What's your motive
So tell me what's your motive
What's your motive
What's your motive

Yeah, yeah, aye
You treat me like gold, baby
Now you wanna spoil me
Did you want a trophy?
Now you wanna sport me, baby
Want me on your neck
'Cause you wanted respect
'Cause you fighting some war, baby
Well, I had to bring the fists out
Had to put a wall up
But don't trust phonies, baby
You gotta tell me what's your motive, baby

'Cause you got your candy on your arm
No need to sugarcoat a lie
Say what you want
I needed a real bonafide G
Can you promise me you'll bring it all tonight?
'Cause I need you to be wise

Tell me everything that's on your mind, c'mon

Baby, tell me what's your motive
What's your motive (What's your motive)
What's your motive (What's your motive)
So tell me what's your motive
What's your motive (What's your motive)
What's your motive
