

Beyond The Wall

Arkan

Under the low grey sky
We complain
Waiting for the green light
We remain
And as the days get longer
Hope fades away
Will we find a real shelter
On our way ?

Where's the light ?

And the walk starts again
Exodus
All : children, women and men
Roam aimless
To the next border to cross
One more step
Through the feeling of deep loss
We need help

No matter the borders
We walk on
No matter the soldiers
We go on
No wall can stop the flow
Cause we know
We should be feeding the crows
So we go

I wish we could go back home
To these lives that came undone
If there's no choice we can make,
There's still one chance we can take

So please just bring us some light
To help us escape the blight
We don't want to steal your home
We just need one of our own
Bring light
Give us hope

My dream is within reach
So close from the peace we all beseech
The light beyond the wall
Expectations before the fall
