Den Of Thieves

Armored Saint

These living quarters are off limits to you These guarded borders are all subject to choose Passive not my tone of voice no way Not my choice, here to make a point

Inside - you will find all that you need
In the den of thieves
Inside - you'll always find ecstacy
In the den of thieves

This propaganda can be hell against you This four leaf clover can be lucky for you Freedom and fortune waits for all time to Climb the wall and watch the old ways fall

Inside - sleep always comes easily

Radical changes are there pushing you through Severing ties a big decision for you What will you do

Power, by rank and file, you must learn to smile Lonely in the wind

Inside - things aren't always what they seem
