

Kiss of Kali

Arrayan Path

Dark one, take me away
I want to feel the death in your eyes
We fall down on our bending knees
For the kiss that you have deprived
Shiva, She will arise
You'll remain the light in our pathways
Now hope, is all that's left for me
Don't you take it away

Your love, sapphire
You'll never know,
You're lifting me higher
Her own, messiah
Our endless road
Narayana

We praise, whispering our wishes
Take our hearts, we give them to you
All around, destruction you will bring
Your kingdom is night

Your kingdom come
Eternal energy
Oh lord forget me the slayer
Years and years
To stand and face the fears
Oh lord forgot me
Imperia

Your love, sapphire
You'll never know,
You're lifting me higher
Her own, messiah
Our endless road, Narayana

The kiss of Kali, your solemn hour
Shivali, Maya
