

Sins of Pandora

Arrayan Path

A product of society, Creation of the Gods
Molded from the ground and from the ash
A gift from all divinity, she's beautiful sin
Destruction of a man comes from within

"Do not open, don't open the box"
"Don't spread this evil in this world"

Scattered all society, with evil, immorality
Poisonous but leaving only hope

I am Pandora, The Great Pandora
With the sins of the sun
You will see the burning of this world
A lethal aura, The Dark Pandora
She will come from within, Temptation will win
And the father of all the Gods, Pandora

The Great Pandora
With the sins of the sun
You will see the burning of this world
A lethal aura, The Dark Pandora
She will come from within, Temptation will win
And the father of all the Gods, Pandora

A parasite, damnation and a curse for every man
A dark exotic evil in the land
A crawling evil snake enjoys the shedding of the skin
The greater of all evils, it is she

"Do not open, don't open the box"
"Unleash the demons in the land"

Snake devil woman, what have you done?
A curse upon our motherland
Poisonous but leaving only hope

Cursing humanity, the evils of society
Another desecration of the mind

I am Pandora, The Great Pandora
With the sins of the sun
You will see the burning of this world
A lethal aura, The Dark Pandora
She will come from within, Temptation will win
And the father of all the Gods, Pandora

The Great Pandora
With the sins of the sun
You will see the burning of this world
A lethal aura, The Dark Pandora
She will come from within, Temptation will win
And the father of all the Gods, Pandora
