

The Mask of Sanity

Arrayan Path

Feeling as though I've committed a crime
A dreamer forever, I'm destiny's child
Running in a rat race alone and I'll never know why

Trying so hard not to lose control
Trying even harder not to lose my soul
A father, a hunter of dreams that will never come true

Is now the time to give up the fight?
Smash my reality, embrace the life
Holding my children close, they are my life

Now I sail beyond, beyond the seven seas
And I sail beyond, beyond the seven seas
Have I failed you now? Beyond the seven seas
Hope for my soul, it is the mask of sanity

Wake me up, I can feel it in my bones
Driving into walls

Now I sail beyond, beyond the seven seas
And I sail beyond, beyond the seven seas
Have I failed you now? Beyond the seven seas
Hope for my soul, it is the mask of sanity

Now I sail beyond, beyond the seven seas
And I sail beyond, beyond the seven seas
Have I failed you now? Beyond the seven seas
Hope for my soul, it is the mask of sanity

Hope for my soul, it is the mask of sanity
