

Your Gravity

Arrows to Athens

This is my goodbye.
I can't take another year-
Falling into broken expectations.

If you unearth the site, you'll find no survivors here.
I'm coming back to life, now, slowly.

This is a moment-
This is my only chance.
So I leave the ground and break through these clouds.
Your gravity holds me-
Your gravity holds me.

Dawn is shaping time,
And I'm talking to myself again-
Reciting empty phrases, but I'm keeping hope alive.

This is a moment-
This is my only chance.
So I leave the ground and break through these clouds.
Your gravity holds me-
Your gravity holds me.

This is my goodbye-
This is a moment-
This is my only chance.
So I leave the ground and break through these clouds.
Your gravity holds me.

Remember the last words-
I'm leaving with no regret.
So I leave the ground and break through these clouds.
Your gravity holds me-
Your gravity holds me, yeah.
Your gravity holds me, yeah.
