

Belonging to the state
An incongruent dialect of presence
Failed to explain reasons
Held under faith laid dormant
To wash the world away
It revealed itself in daymare believing
A child's mind has long been deceased
If there's anything left I can promise
THEY'LL NEVER BE THE SAME

It becomes a horror we'll be the last ones standing
It becomes a horror taking grip on the earth
All the pieces seem to fit me
I'll be the change that the world needs
It's a happening of distorted youth
I found the key to local providence

In time I beheld a truth so fervently
Indoctrination among defeat
Shallow tides ground me without escape
BUT I'LL BEAR MY FUCKING TEETH
In the light of absence you can taste
I am not your mentor in this place
It's an ample love to watch things burn
WATCH THINGS BURN

I can be the inference
I can be the monstrous truth
Understate me

It becomes a horror of mass descent
Laced and trapped with coercion
When this lesson becomes an infection
YOU WON'T KNOW UNTIL IT'S ALL AROUND US

All this..
It came to me a new breed of tragedy
Rid everyone the hardship of reason
I have institutionalized them
It came to me
AMONG THE CENTURIES
THAT TAUGHT US TO BREATHE
I seek a new kind of human difference

I have institutionalized them
It came to me
THAT TAUGHT US TO BREATHE
I seek a new kind of human difference
