

Post Soothing Out

Art Brut

You're only halfway through your working day
I'm sorry, honey, but we both need your pay
I'm sorry about everything I've put you through
I'm sorry about getting by on making do
And every day is just like startin? over
We try so hard but we keep on falling over
Every day is just like startin? over
We try so hard but we keep on falling over
Every day is just like startin? over
We try so hard but we keep on falling over
You're worried and I have my doubts
But I'm drunk when I text, so I send post soothing out
I just had a nasty flashback, we both used our cards for cash b ack
Hard way to explain why my pockets are full of change
And every day is just like startin? over
We try so hard but we keep on falling over
Every day is just like startin? over
We try so hard but we keep on falling over
Every day is just like startin? over
We try so hard but we keep on falling over
River deep and mountain high
There's some lyrics that'll never apply
'Cause I don't lie awake at night
With thoughts of river depth or mountain height
Don't care what your parents say
It won't always be this way
I don't care what your parents say
It won't always be this way
I don't care what your parents say
It won't always be this way
You're only halfway through your working day
I've met your parents and I know it sounds rough
But I'm gonna be out when they come for your stuff
So cheer up now, it's not all doom and gloom
They didn't go around to redecorating your room
