

The Devil's Symphony

Artillery

Hook me up with all that is unholy
Bring forth the pentagram, magic, and Crowley
Inverted crosses and rituals of the flesh
Taste otherworld, inhale the incense

What is forbidden shall be my path
Shall not forgive, but give in to wrath
Bite the hand, hate with delight
Shroud me with darkness, my cloth is the night

Dance to the tune of the Devil
Let him find your way
Find your way

Follow the signs, taught by LaVey
See a smile as I awake your dismay
Darkness shall fill me, fill me with light
No need for guidance, I have the sight

Dance to the tune of the Devil
Let him find your way
Find your way

Let him in to your heart
Let him in to your heart
Let him in to your heart
Let him in to your heart

How can you reject me
How can you ignore
I want you to see me
The devil's symphony

Let him in to your heart

How can you reject me
How can you ignore
I want you to see me
The devil's symphony

For you must see, your own way to carve
It is a sin, I shall not starve
Will not accept, obey your litany
Ave Satani - no Christianity

Dance to the tune of the Devil
Let him find your way
Dance to the tune of the Devil
Let him find your way
Find your way
