

Sincerely Me

Artist vs. Poet

I didn't these memories I'm writing down could put my mind at ease Oh but I'll write until my fingers bleed and keep them safe so no one else can see

Cause if you can't stay I'll write away,
I could write until I see your face
Maybe these letters can connect us, resurrect the hope inside, Form the words that will reverse the time and bring us back to life
And I wish that you could see, oh what you do to me,
And I hope this letter covers everything
I'm yours sincerely me

I didn't think this pen and ink would take your place and keep me company
Oh but I'll write until my fingers bleed if that is what will bring you home to me

Cause if you can't stay I'll write away,
I could write until I see your face
Maybe these letters can connect us, resurrect the hope inside,
And I wish that you could see, oh what you do to me,
And I hope this letter covers everything
I'm yours sincerely me
