

Standing in the Rain

Ashley Roberts

I won't mind
If this is the end
I've been waiting on you
Time and again

Holding torches
But I can't pretend
I could even call you now
My friend

(Ooh, ooh)
Oh
It's like I didn't know your name
But still I carried all your pain
Our hearts are yearning
The streets are burning
But I'm standing in the rain
I wish we had another day
I wish I'd only made you stay
Our hearts are yearning
The streets are burning
But I'm standing in the rain

If all is fair
In love and war
Let this heart surrender
I deplore

In place
I'm hiding more and more
Taking all my courage to adore

(Ooh, ooh)
Oh
It's like I didn't know your name
But still I carried all your pain
Our hearts are yearning

The streets are burning
But I'm standing in the rain

I wish we had another day
I wish I'd only made you stay
Our hearts are yearning
The streets are burning
But I'm standing in the rain
I'm listening for the sound
Of where you can be found
I hope it is definitely home

I listen for the sound
Of where you can be found
I hope it is definitely

And, oh
But still I carried all your pain

Our hearts are yearning

Oh
But still I carried all your pain

(Ooh, ooh)
(Ooh, ooh)

(Ooh, ooh)
