

Faithful

Asia

So many faces in my life at times,
Couldn't change the way I feel.
I will talk what you forget,
To live in love with no regret.

And when I stumble in the dark at night,
Just when I thought that there can be no light,
You came along and you should know,
Look in my eyes, the truth will show.

I'll be faithful,
That's what I do,
Ever faithful,
My aim is true.

Wherever you may go,
You'll always know,
Faithful I'll be with you.

I've been astray of my life you see,
I thought nothing will ever change for me,
Now I found you, here I'll stay.
May it always be that way,

'Cos I'll be faithful,
That's what I do,
Ever faithful,
My aim is true.

Wherever you may go,
You'll always know,
Faithful I'll be with you.
