Wishing

Wishing, hoping How can I keep coping? Till I know your wish is to be with me

You go, I know You were the one who told me so I'm wishing you lying in my arms again

Sad, so sad It's written across my face My tears leave no trace They fall and disappear

Mad, so mad Leaving you on your own You're right to disown me Will always be so clear

Wishing, so long How can I keep holding on? While missing you, wishing you home again

Sad, so sad It's written across my face My tears leave no trace They fall and disappear

Mad, so mad Leaving you on your own You're right to disown me Will always be so clear

Wishing...
