

Reaching

Aslyn

There is a candle burning in my heart
It's holding onto the light
For one more day to be mine
Don't leave without a word
I need a little more time
Oh please lie be kind

You never were afraid of the things that weigh you down
They have no hold on you
Love is the amazing grace
And everything you do
Oh, please lie and be true

The road you choose
Is yours tonight
Today a dark day fights
Someone here will make it right
You were always reaching
Angel in the sky

She came to you
When love was young
You learned to face the sun
With a heart that never dies
Today, she left to go with god
You were never quiet the same
You were never quiet the same

The Road you choose
Is yours tonight
Today a dark Day fights
Someone here will make it by
You were always reaching for an angel in the sky

Now, a new life has begun
Awakened with the sun
You have to leave
Staring back at you
Love takes you away
To find amazing grace

The Road you choose
Is yours tonight
Today, a dark day fights
Someone here will make it right
Til then I'm reaching for an angel in the sky
