

Salt The Earth

Assemblage 23

Set the demons loose
On all that stands before you
Unleash the dogs of war
And let them chase the bastards down

Burn the bridges, salt the earth
Reset the counter back to zero
Tear existence from its frame
Never look back, never return

Rain the Heavens down
In the name of retribution
Cut off the oxygen
And watch the flames slowly choke out

Burn the bridges, salt the earth
Reset the counter back to zero
Tear existence from its frame
Never look back, never return

Call on catastrophe
To shatter fate's foundations
Make your own destiny
And leave the poison in the past

Burn the bridges, salt the earth
Reset the counter back to zero
Tear existence from its frame
Never look back, never return
