

Seamless Borderline

Astrid van der Veen

they have come for me over there in the corner can't you see not long till they'll find their ways inside feeding me apathy till all my feelers died it's an endless road I walk alone don't treat this disease while the cure is still unknown jealousy towards the ones around me they feel constantly the only thing alive in me is the running blood I carry so let it run freely cause perfect skin is so damn ugly it confuses me

makes me feel empty and it's an empty soul I carry and it makes me sad and angry I'm the parasite in me so ambiguous I'll always be so take this empty soul I carry cause I'm overfed yet hungry I better try hard to make it mine so hard I better try hard cause I'm stucked to it for life yeah you're forever mine

seamless borderline
forever mine
borderline
