

The Most

Astrid van der Veen

let's admit it
there's nothing to it
nothing but a hungry slave in a foolless grave

and I will save you
when you're all alone it's you I wanna own quite a heartless love yet I love you the most today I found the third it's you I want to share it's not an honour believe me I know it's not for long believe me I'll go feed me with your hunger and accept it for evermore though I will never tell you about this heartless love cause I love you the most
