

It Just Ain't Your Moon

Atlanta Rhythm Section

When hangover Sundays hangover to Monday
And everything's out of tune
Don't you worry about it
It just ain't your moon

Some situations are predestination
So don't you take it so hard
Just resign yourself to the fact
Sometimes it ain't in the cards

It just ain't your moon, boy
It just ain't your day
Don't you try to force it
It ain't gonna happen anyway
It just ain't your moon

Boy, don't you give up
There's good and there's bad luck
We all get an equal share
Seems sometimes you just can't win
C'est la vie
C'est la guerre

Sometimes
It just ain't your moon, boy
It just ain't your day
Don't you try to force it
It ain't gonna happen anyway
It just ain't your moon
