

Putting My Faith In Love

Atlanta Rhythm Section

How many hearts will have to be broken?
Tell me, why do fools want to fuss and fight?
And darlin', how many times will it have to be proven
That love is the only hope in sight?

I'm putting my faith in love
I'm putting my faith in love
From now on, I'm putting my faith in love

Tomorrow's gonna be a brighter day
I'm putting my faith in love
Taking my chances and come what may
I'm putting my faith in love

I'm not afraid and I'm not worried
I know that everything's gonna be okay
Love will find a new beginning
Where there is love, there will surely be a way

I'm putting my faith in love
I'm putting my faith in love
From now on, I'm putting my faith in love
Yes, I am
I'm putting my faith in love
I'm putting my faith in love
Me and mine are putting our faith in love

Tomorrow's gonna be a brighter day
I'm putting my faith in love
Taking my chances and come what may
I'm putting my faith in love

I'm not afraid and I'm not worried
I know that everything's gonna be okay
Love will find a new beginning
Where there is love, there will surely be a way

I'm putting my faith in love
I'm putting my faith in love
From now on, I'm putting my faith in love
Yes, I am
I'm putting my faith in love
I'm putting my faith in love
From now on, I'm putting my faith in love
