

Girl, Your Love's So Fine

Atlantic Starr

Whoa-whoa, yeah
Ooh-ooh-ooh, yeah

Here we are again, together alone
I don't wanna waste a second
So let's disconnect the phone
And lay down beside me
And let me feel what makes my heart beat so
Come on, girl, move a little closer
My body wants to touch yours
'Cause you are so warm and tender
And I always smile with splendor
'Cause your love is so wonderful to me
Yeah, girl

Oh, girl, your love's so fine
It's like having a glass or two of vintage wine
You're so good, yeah, yeah, baby
Girl, your love's so fine
I could never forget you, girl
Forever you'll stay on my mind, oh...
(Ooh...)
Ooh, baby, baby

Girl, it must be morning
'Cause here comes the sun
Oh, we didn't even notice
'Cause we were havin' so much fun
But that doesn't make a difference
'Cause your love is so good in broad daylight
Oh, yes, it is, girl
Whenever I make love to you
And look into your eyes, I see Mona Lisa
And from my eyes, I can't release her
Girl, your love is like the classics to me, oh...

Oh, girl, your love's so fine
It's like having a glass or two of vintage wine
Vintage wine, the best wine that money could buy
Girl, your love's so fine
I could never forget you
Forever you'll stay on my mind, yeah, yeah, yeah

When I look into your precious eyes
I see Mona Lisa
And from my eyes, I can't release her
Girl, your love is like the classics to me, and ooh...

Girl, your love's so fine
Your love is priceless, baby
A glass or two of vintage wine
You deserve the best
The best of everything in the whole wide world
Girl, your love's so fine
You don't need to be sitting up on a hill
Forever you'll stay on my mind
In a palace, living like a queen, yeah

'Cause, ba-baby
I never felt no love like yours before
Tell me what's
Tell me what's inside your love
That feels so good
Tell me, I really wanna know
'Cause you see
I'm hooked on your love, girl, baby
You're so good, so fine
So good, so fine, so good, ooh, baby
I love you
You make me feel like a new man...
