Nothing Will Ever Change

Atreyu

Yeah

I've got a fucking curse
Wrapped in a problem
Hidden inside of my brain
And everywhere I look
Hidden in every thought
The ending is the same
I don't know if I can see the blue skies
When all I see is shrouded in gray
And I don't care if I make you happy
Cause every day I'm living in pain
(I'm living in pain)

I am thunder, I am rain
Just a human hurricane
Smashing everything that stands in front of me
(In front of me)
I'm the blood that's pouring out
I'm the kingdom burning down
And I am so afraid that nothing will ever change
(Nothing will ever change)

It's automatic negative sarcastic
It's got a hold of me destroying everything
It doesn't care if you change the greatest things
Warping reality, it's running inside me
I can't see anymore
It's like the devil is pissed off burning inside me
I can't love anymore
Used up burnt out borderline psycho
(Fuck it)

I am thunder, I am rain
Just a human hurricane
Smashing everything that stands in front of me
(In front of me)
I'm the blood that's pouring out
I'm the kingdom burning down
And I am so afraid that nothing will ever change
(Nothing will ever change)

I fan the flames inside of me
And I taste the blood between my teeth
Buried my demons ten feet deep
But they still creep back to choke me out

I am thunder, I am rain
Just a human hurricane
Smashing everything that stands in front of me
(In front of me)
I'm the blood that's pouring out
I'm the kingdom burning down
And I am so afraid that nothing will ever change
(Nothing will ever change)

Nothing will ever change

```
Nothing will ever change
Nothing will ever change
 (Nothing will ever change)
Nothing will ever change
Nothing will ever change
Nothing will ever change
```
