

Blood-stained Prophecy

Atrocity

Refering to an old book one thousand words - one lie lost in self-adulation your self-regarded mind narrow minded visions spread like poison through the world posing as the awaited saviour the last supper prepared

a lifeless son is your idol your act of grace is death canturies of forced conversion word of god declined your tonguees speak about mercy but your prophecy is pain narcissim and divine benediction won't save you from ordeal

blood-stained prophecy
