

The Invitation

Attila

Give in to your temptations, stop worrying about whats wrong or right

Pick up the conversation from the last point that we left off
You always have your way with me

Pick up the conversation from the last point that we left off
You always have your way with my mind, seducing thoughts control me all of the time

All of these thoughts are combining and I'm contemplating my next big move

What will you do if these feelings persist? Give in, this urge you cannot resist

All of these thoughts are combining and I'm contemplating my next big move

What will you do if these feelings persist? Give in, this urge you cannot resist

Look at me now. Sit in with me as I have a chat with the devil upon my shoulder

Who thought it ever would come to this

Everyone's got a secret to tell, so tell me something dirty

Tell me something that I'm gonna like

We're losing time- so are you

Don't let useless emotions inflict you in your daily life

I've got a feeling that there's more where that came from

And I'm hoping I can get some more of you

Breathe all you've got into my soul, I want it all or nothing at all

Don't hold back, accept this invitation

I don't need any words or explanation

Me and you possess a love that could break the mold

When we're together we can overcome the world

So please accept this invitation

I don't need any words or explanation

Me and you possess a love that could break the mold

When we're together we can overcome the world

Bounce

Is anybody even listening?

No
