

There Goes A Lady

Audrey Horne

Here she comes, shipwrecks and all
Death and curouption rings out through her call
Tangerine coloured, sweet as can be
Devoured by the watery sea

There goes a Lady
There she goes on her own
There goes a Lady
With death in tow right behind

We've been climbing these mountain like waves
Our sons and daughters are lost to the deep
Sail on, a wiser man
And save our souls from the dark blue sea
Cause she whispers so sweet, while flashin' her teeth
We follow her, like moth to the flame
And they said, they said:
"It's not what it seems,
'Cause death comes at the end of her song!"

There goes a Lady
There she goes on her own
There goes a Lady
With death in tow right behind

All I ever wanted was to be in her arms
All I ever wanted was to get high

There goes a Lady
There she goes on her own
There goes a Lady
There she goes on her own, on her own, on her own
There goes a Lady
There she goes on her own
There goes a Lady
With death in tow right behind
There goes a Lady
