Hell's Fire

Sense destructive deathcore Float amongst the dying Strive to create spaces Deteriorating realm

If only I'd been blessed If only I'd accepted Christ Well fuck, I enjoy starving And I don't cry... I get to rape again

They crawl from severe flesh wounds Yearning to see rain I stand up cause I chose this And I don't mind the pain

If only I'd been blessed If only I'd accepted Christ Well fuck, I enjoy starving And I don't cry... I get to rape again

If I had known this "paradise" I'd kill myself 10 fucking years before The glorious flames, the tortured souls The need to see the fires... of Hell

Hell's fire burn!!!
