

Churchyard

AURORA

He told me I belong in a churchyard
He told me I could walk away but I wouldn't get far Tell me all your people know what it's life, what it's love (he yey)
He told me I belong in a churchyard

Words pointy like arrows
Wounds no one can see
He closed that windows
As his anger broke free
I will not remember
You as somebody nice
Please will you remember me?
And cry

He told me I belong in a churchyard
He told me I could walk away but I wouldn't get far Tell me all your people know what it's like, what it's like (he
yey)
He told me I belong in a churchyard

Hate followed him gently
Planted seeds in his heart
Roots tearing the love in him
Apart...

He told me I belong in a churchyard
He told me I could walk away but I wouldn't get far Tell me all your people know what it's like, what it's like (he
yey)
He told me I belong in a churchyard
